"The Subway Song"

[from Jbrary]

Oh the city is big, and the city is wide

So we use the subway, when we want to take a ride

We go deep underground, when we want to get around

And the train doors open With a big woosh sound!

And the people get in, and the people get out

And the people get in, and the people get out

And the people get in, and the people get out

And the train zooms off!
